

Report on Blood Donation Camp

A Voluntary Blood Donation Camp was organized by the Blood Centre, Department of Pathology, Annapoorana Medical College & Hospitals at Annapoorana Engineering College, Salem, on 10th April 2026, between 10:00 AM and 2:00 PM.

The camp was preceded by an awareness campaign conducted on the Annapoorana Engineering College campus, highlighting the necessity and benefits of voluntary and regular blood donation. The program included a PowerPoint presentation and an interactive one-to-one question-and-answer session, effectively addressing various doubts and myths surrounding blood donation and a registration drive for voluntary blood donors at Annapoorana Medical College Hospital.

The camp commenced at 10:00 AM and was presided over by the respected Dean, Prof. Dr. B. Usha, M.D., and Medical Superintendent, Prof Dr. S. Ramasamy, M.D., Their presence and encouragement added great value to the event.

Students and faculty members of Annapoorana Engineering College participated enthusiastically, demonstrating commendable social responsibility and commitment to saving lives.

All donors were carefully screened and assessed by a dedicated team of medical officers, staff nurses, and laboratory technicians to ensure donor safety and suitability. 50 units of whole blood were collected during the camp.

Post-donation, all donors were provided with refreshments and were closely monitored for any adverse reactions, ensuring their well-being. The camp concluded on a highly positive note and stood as a notable achievement, contributing significantly to the ongoing need for safe blood supply.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all the voluntary blood donors for their selfless contribution and noble gesture in saving lives.

We sincerely thank the Administration, Organizing team, and Department of Pathology, Blood Centre staff for their unwavering support, meticulous planning, and seamless execution of the camp. Their collective effort and dedication made the event a remarkable success.
